The Next Meeting of the SRWC – Monday, March 10!! 7:00 PM

Dynamic Speakercoming to SRWC on March 10

The meeting will begin at 7:00 P.M. at Bailey's Grille and Pub in Central Park. If you plan to have dinner at Bailey's, you may want to arrive a little early.

Due to a conflict, Christy Jett, our scheduled speaker, will not be able to join us, BUT it has just been confirmed that Delegate Bob Marshall, who is running for the US Senate seat being vacated by Senator John Warner, will be our speaker.

All members and guests will want to hear what this exciting, experienced and highly capable candidate has to say. So please plan on being there - we want to have a great turnout for this dynamic candidate

See you on Monday night!

Don't forget to keep track of all volunteer campaign hours. Information to include, date, campaign, precinct/ward, state/county party, and federation.
